*Audio is VOIP - you must have a speaker or headset to hear the webinar

This presentation will provide the DSEN community with an overview of network meta-analysis, including definition and importance, differences between network meta-analysis and meta-analysis, as well as emerging research on network meta-analysis. Students will also learn when a meta-analysis is appropriate versus a network meta-analysis.

Learning Objectives:

- 1) Define network analysis
- 2) Understand the importance of network meta-analysis
- 3) Know the difference between meta-analysis and network meta-analysis
